

About the website:

Planning to work and live in the US? Wondering whether this company will sponsor your H-1B visa? If that's you, you have come to the right place!

Stay in the US helps you easily search for companies based on your preferences and interests. From there, you can learn how much those companies have sponsored H1-B visas over the years. In other words, Stay in the US helps you find the most international worker-friendly company for YOU!

About the project:

This project aims to help international workers who wish to work in the US easily access information regarding US-based companies' H1-B sponsorship. The source of the data is the annual Labor Condition Application (LCA) Disclosure Data released by the US Department of Labor of which the 2016, 2017, 2018, 2020, and 2021 data were used.
